

Spring 2023

Hello! I am very excited to share with you that the Little Star Light Podcast has launched! Parents and family members of children with cancer in hospitals; colleagues, friends, even strangers, ask me what Podcasts I listen to, to learn from and be inspired by. Supporters - that is special and amazing you!, I am daily grateful for you, and I always try to give you first hand stories of how your help is making a difference. Some of those stories have included sharing about interesting people that have been a part of, or have influenced Little Star Foundation and my journey. Additionally and importantly, Little Star Foundation has an alumni you helped raise! Put all that together and the Little Star Light Podcast was created!

In this Spring 2023 "Your Example" News the launching of the free Little Star Light Podcast is shared. The podcast is made in partnership with Little Star Foundation but not made with your donation dollars. It is also made in addition to Little Star Foundation Programs and not a replacement of Programs. All the award winning programs of Little Star Foundation are continuing as usual.

Every Wednesday new episodes will be released and you can listen or view at www.littlestarlightpodcast.com and on Spotify, Google, iTunes and YouTube and anywhere podcasts are found. Little Star Foundation's website www.littlestar.org will always have a link so you can follow, listen and view from our website too. Every Wednesday episode stays so if you want to watch an episode another day, week or month you can. The more listeners we get the more Little Star Foundation can benefit.

Enjoy! Little Star Light is a gift for you. If you have a guest or question you would like us to feature in a conversation episode I welcome your thoughts. With great appreciation of you,

Andrea Jaeger
